

BOOKS FOR THE MILITARY FAMILY NETWORK (MFN)

BR Anchor Publishing is Proud to Partner with MFN

Children’s books are written for international and domestic moving. Each book contains age-appropriate activities, Internet sites and safety tips all designed to take the apprehension out of moving, and turn it into an exciting adventure. All five relocation books are updated with each printing (once or twice annually).

My Family is Moving ~~$8.95~~/$6.95

Characters Tommy Turtle and Oliver Owl guide children through their move with fun games and thought provoking activities. Countdown calendar stickers and colorful packing labels to mark their special belongings are included.

The League of Super Movers ~~$4.95~~/$3.99

Emphasizes that change can bring about unexpected benefits. “The League” is a group of superheroes that guides preteens through their entire moving adventure. The storyline and activities offer methods to adjust to new schools and communities.

Footsteps Around the World ~~$13.95~~/$11.95

A one-of-a-kind book for teens—from pre-departure planning to how to adjust smoothly to a new location. The many tips include: money management, college and job interviews, tips for talking to parents/teachers and repatriation.

Home Away From Home (international) ~~$14.95~~/$12.95

Personal and professional advice for employees and their families to move to another country. Topics mirror those in Relocation 101, but with international focus for employees and their families. It also addresses moving abroad with infants, over 60 Internet sites, valuable relocation checklists and military-specific sections.

Relocation 101 (domestic) ~~$14.95~~/$12.95

Personal and professional advice for today's most critical relocation challenges. Topics include: career options for relocating spouses; educational resources; home sales/purchases; medical and elder care concerns and insurance. Military-specific sections, Internet sites (over 60) and valuable relocation checklists.
